New Cafés and restaurants in Beverley

So many new ones are now popping up that one is spoilt for choice. What do you think about them? Have you any words of wisdom to pass on to your fellow members?

I have been to a few, and have some opinions.

I would very much like to congratulate all the contributors to the last newsletter. The very high quality of the content, and the implied work, was most striking. I can't remember when I last enjoyed a Civic Society Newsletter so much. I know how hard it is, from everyone's position, to marshal the material, get it in on time, and make it as relevant and enjoyable as this last edition was. It made me relish our lovely old town all over again. Thank you.
